

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Do you like writing, or want to gain more experience scientific writing?
Are you interested in learning about and applying methods of urban research?
Want some credit points for that?

The Urbanism, Architecture & Society Unit (UASU) is happy to support independent study projects utilizing our methods and approaches, either (1) pursuing questions relevant to our group, or (2) supporting you in finding your own research questions. We can provide topics for independent study related to our research areas in the Alpine Rhine Valley, as well as various locations across the Global South.

We also encourage aligning independent study projects with our other concurrent courses including: Urbanisierung, Ethik, Studio India, Architectural Theory, or Pro Bono.

WHEN Individual appointments will be set with the instructor. Group projects are also possible, as well as group work with individual submissions

START TBD with instructor

ASSESSMENT Written assignment

CREDITS 2 ECTS: Analysis of scientific texts (written submission)

3 ECTS: Fieldwork and analysis (poster and written submission)

4 ECTS: Fieldwork and text analysis (written submission)
