

A photograph of a man working on a large bamboo structure in a field. The structure consists of many vertical bamboo poles and horizontal bamboo beams. The man is sitting on one of the horizontal beams, and he appears to be using a tool to work on the structure. The background shows a lush green field with trees and a clear sky.

SEMINAR WEEK

The seminar week of Studio India will take us to Delhi, the capital of India, from there we will start our journey:

- > to Surat, visit of tribal communities and the building site of the studio project,
- > to Ukai, visit of a bamboo workshop,
- > to Ahmedabad, visit of buildings designed by Pritzker Prize winner BV Doshi,
- > to Jaipur, the "Pink City," visit to Hawa Mahal, Jantar Mantar, Baoli wells,
- > return to Delhi, visit to the markets in Old Delhi, Jama Masjid, Humayun's Tomb

DATES ca. Saturday, 27 September - Sunday, 5 October (pending flights)

COSTS total costs ca. 1'250 CHF; flight ca. 600-700 CHF (depending on carriers/connections); e-visa ca. 30 CHF (for Swiss/Austrian/German residents); accommodation ca. 30 CHF/night (will be organized for you); transport ca. 100 CHF/week (will be organized for you); daily costs for food and entry tickets of 20-30 CHF

GOOD TO KNOW vaccinations are not mandatory and are the responsibility of the students

CONTACT Anna // ah@anna-heringer.com, Daniel // daniel.haselsberger@uni.li